CHRISTIAN FUNERALS

The loss of a loved one is never an easy time in the life of family and friends. Sometimes the loss is expected and anticipated, giving families time to say their “goodbyes” and to at least mentally plan for the final arrangements. Other times, it is totally unexpected and grief-stricken families must make these decisions under time pressures.

You do not have to be a member of Sunnybrook Community Church (SCC) to have the funeral service conducted by SCC Staff—either on site, at the funeral home or at the gravesite. It is the goal and hope of SCC staff and volunteers that they can be there to minister to you in your hour of deep need.

The bottom line is that God loves you; He sees your hurt and pain. The SCC funeral ministry team wants to serve as the hands and feet of Jesus Christ as they help you walk through this valley of sadness and grief. We have prepared this booklet and these guidelines to help with decisions and to assist you during these difficult days.

ROLE OF THE OFFICIANT

Funeral/Memorial services are conducted by one of SCC officiants. The officiant will meet with the family prior to the funeral/memorial service to offer comfort and to help the family in planning for the funeral service(s) of their loved one. He/she will approve the musical selections, conduct the service(s) and deliver the message.

If there is a family member or friend who is an ordained Pastor in another Christian church that you would like to officiate the service(s), prior approval is necessary.
